The Commission during last hearing had directed to adjourn the matter on the request of legal counsel of the Respondent, UPPCL due to lockdown conditions.

The matter came up for hearing today wherein Legal counsel of the Petitioner sought adjournment of two weeks in the wake of prevailing situation in Chennai arising out of covid-19. The legal Counsel of UPPCL do not have any objection to the adjournment sought by the Petitioner.

The Commission observed that the matter has been pending for long. However, keeping in view the genuine difficulty arising out of covid-19 pandemic, the Commission allowed adjournment of two weeks in the matter, but without associated carrying cost, if any.
