Record of Proceedings

Learned counsel for the Petitioner submitted that the present Petition has been filed inter alia seeking declaration that enactment and promulgation of the Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017, the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 and the State Goods and Services Act, 2017 ('GST Laws') is a Change in Law event and consequent direction to the Respondents to compensate the Petitioner towards the additional costs incurred by the Petitioner on account of GST Law insofar as it relate to operation and maintenance expenses of its 2x660 MW Mahatma Gandhi Thermal Power Project along with the carrying cost. Learned counsel submitted that the Appellate Tribunal for Electricity in its various decisions including by the judgment dated 27.4.2021 in Appeal No. 172 of 2017 (Coastal Gujarat Power Ltd. v. CERC and Ors.) has allowed the compensation for the additional costs incurred due to enactment/promulgation of GST Laws towards operation and maintenance expenses of the project.

2. In response to the specific query of the Commission regarding the limitation, learned counsel for the Petitioner submitted that the claims of the Petitioner are not barred by limitation. Learned counsel submitted that continuous correspondence was being exchanged between the parties with regard to the Petitioner's Change in Law claim and last reply of Haryana Discoms came only in the year 2022. Learned counsel also relied upon the order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 10.1.2022 in Suo Motu Writ Petition (Civil) No. 3 of 2020 whereby the Hon'ble Supreme Court, due to the outbreak of Covid-19, has excluded the period from 15.3.2020 till 28.2.2020 for the purpose of limitation. Learned counsel alternatively also submitted that Change in Law event having a recurring impact, each contract year gives a separate/fresh cause of action to the Petitioner to claim the relief and the Petitioner cannot be denied the Change in Law relief for entire balance period under the agreements.

3. Learned counsel for the Respondents Nos. 1 & 2, Haryana Discoms and Respondent No.4, TPDDL accepted the notice and sought time to file reply to the petition.

4. After hearing the learned counsel for the Petitioner and the Respondents, the Commission ordered as under:
