Record of Proceedings

At the outset, the learned counsel for the Petitioners submitted that the rejoinder to the reply filed by the Respondent, KEIPL, is ready. However, the same could not be filed due to the closure of the window on the e-filing portal. Learned counsel for the Petitioners, accordingly, sought permission to file a rejoinder and requested to list the matter at the earliest. Learned counsel for the Respondent, KEIPL, also sought liberty to file a short reply in the matter to bring on record certain subsequent developments and communications exchanged between the parties.

2. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsels for the parties, the Commission permitted the Petitioners to file their rejoinder within a week. The Commission also permitted the Respondent to file its short reply, as above, within a week with a copy to the Petitioner.

3. The Petition will be listed for hearing on 7.8.2025.
