Record of Proceedings

(Date of Hearing: 20.01.2026)

(Date of Order: 20.01.2026)

1. Mr. Deepak Soni, DGM (C&RA) Division of DTL, submitted that the accounts for the Financial Year 2022-23 shall be filed before the Commission within a period of seven days. It was further submitted that, owing to certain administrative reasons, the said accounts shall be submitted provisionally, without the audited report, duly signed and authenticated by the General Manager (Finance) of DTL under the authority of the Managing Director of the Petitioner, DTL.
2. Mr. Soni further assured that the ratification/authorization of the Managing Director by the Board of Directors of DTL shall be placed on record in due course of time.
3. Accordingly, the True-up Petition shall be considered by the Commission on the basis of the approval/authentication by the General Manager (Finance) of DTL. However, the True-up Order shall remain provisional, as the audited accounts are presently not available. Upon submission of the audited accounts by DTL, the True-up shall be taken up again for finalization.
4. For the examination of the Petition, the officers of DTL will provide additional details and clarification, if required by the Commission.
5. Order is reserved.
